Trades are subject to the terms and conditions in the currently effective Cheyenne Connector FERC Gas Tariff.

Trade forms may be submitted to Cheyenne Connector Account Services via facsimile or email.

Facsimile submittals should contain signatures from both shippers.

Email submittals must be received from both shippers so the email addresses can be used as confirmation.

Transport trades cannot increase an imbalance.

Trades cannot be conducted outside shipper's contracted rights without incurring additional charges pursuant to Cheyenne Connector's FERC Gas Tariff.

Trades will be recorded in the relevant flow month and will be charged accordingly. Trade Forms must be submitted in accordance with the timelines provided for in Cheyenne Connector's currently effective FERC Gas Tariff.

The Preliminary Cashout Schedule, included with the invoice, details the transportation imbalances by month.
